Visa: New regulations since 1st of July 2016

Since the first July 2016 Visa Applications can be submitted electronically at: <https://visas.immigration.go.ug/>. For the application the following documents are required:

- a copy of the passport
- Proof of yellow fever vaccination
- a passport photograph

The visa fee is still $ 100. Applications will be examined by the German Embassy in Berlin and you will receive via email a so-called "Entry Permit", which you need when entering Uganda.

Customs regulations for Uganda

Advice: Border controls are quite strict. Avoid unnecessary trouble when you arrive by declaring everything which exceeds the limit.

Per person you are allowed to carry one camera, one video camera and one laptop. Every item on top of that has to be declared. There are special regulations for journalists and people working in the film business. You are also allowed to bring in 200 cigarettes, one litre of alcoholic beverages and 250 ml of perfume.
